Pergamentfragment

urn:nbn:de:hbz:466:1-34650

[The page contains dense, handwritten text in a medieval script, likely Gothic or similar. The text is arranged in approximately 25 horizontal lines, filling most of the page. The ink is dark, and the parchment shows signs of age and wear, including some staining and small holes. The handwriting is compact and difficult to decipher without specialized knowledge of the script.]

Handwritten text in a medieval script, likely Latin, covering the entire page. The text is dense and appears to be a continuous block of writing, possibly a letter or a short treatise. The script is a cursive Gothic hand, characteristic of the late 14th or early 15th century. The ink is dark, and the parchment shows signs of age, including some staining and wear at the edges. The text is arranged in approximately 25 lines, with some variations in line length and spacing. The overall appearance is that of a well-preserved but aged manuscript page.

Handwritten text in a medieval script, likely Latin or German, covering the majority of the page. The text is dense and difficult to decipher due to the cursive style and fading.

Handwritten text in a medieval script, likely Gothic or similar, covering the majority of the page. The text is dense and appears to be a continuous block of writing, possibly a letter or a page from a manuscript. The script is highly stylized and difficult to decipher without specialized knowledge. The page shows signs of age, including discoloration and some wear.
