THE RIGHT HONOURABLE
THOMAS LORD BYSTON
BARRON OR ...

My Lord
It is to your goodness, and to the friendship with which you I have long honoured me, that I owe several of the following parts, the works of your late excellency and respected uncle; and I now for the liberty to make you my most grateful acknowledgements When your lordship was to send to borrow of the new pieces, you were pleased to to select those which I thought most proper have thence ventured on my own table the greater part of them to the world for reasons
