

UNIVERSITÄTS-
BIBLIOTHEK
PADERBORN

Universitätsbibliothek Paderborn

Montaigne's Essays

In Three Books. With Notes and Quotations. And an Account of The Author's Life ; With a short Character of the Author and Translator, by the late Marquis of Halifax; With the Addition of A Complete Table to each Volume

Montaigne, Michel Eyquem de

London, 1743

A Complete Index Of the most Remarkable Matters Contained in this Book.

urn:nbn:de:hbz:466:1-53414

A COMPLETE

I N D E X

Of the most

REMARKABLE MATTERS

Contained in this BOOK.

A

	Page
A Bridgment of Ten Days offer'd by the Pope,	273
Absence of Friends, of what Utility,	231
Abstinence of doing, generous,	289
Accidents without Remedy,	196
Accommodations of the Quarrels of these Days shameful and false,	283
Acknowledgment of Benefits,	220
Act of Generation, excluded from serious Discourses, why,	72
Action forced has neither Grace nor Honour,	219
Actions the most common, the most troublesome,	110
Actions publick, subject to various Interpretations,	285
Actions necessary, pleasant,	391
Actions of all sorts, equally honourable to a wise Man,	394
Admiration, the Foundation of Philosophy,	296
Advantage of Greatness,	157
Æsop his Ass,	9
Æsop his Dog,	341
Affairs Domestick, very troublesome,	197
Affairs Domestick, despised,	202
Affairs, how ought to be govern'd,	282
Affection

I N D E X.

Affection well temper'd,	Page 6
Affections of Beasts, what,	45
Affections of Women subject to change,	120
Affections in Farewells,	71
Affections towards Children, weaken'd by their Imperfec- tions,	220
Affliction occasioned by small Things,	58
Agésilauſ in his Travels did lodge in Temples, why,	24
Alexander's Virtue,	25
Alexander's Followers carried their Heads on one ſide,	162
Alexander and Thaleſtris,	119
Alexander emulous of his Father's Victories,	287
Alexander's Fancies about Immortalisation,	401
Alexander did enjoy Corporal Pleaſures,	391
Alliance between Pain and Pleaſure,	373
Alteration, whatever diſtempers aſtoniſhes,	363
Ambition, a Vice of Great Men,	287
Amours, modeſt and noble, of Tiberius,	46
Amours of Flora,	ibid.
Amours of Galba,	132
Amphitheatres rich and ſumptuous,	144
Androſe hang'd by his Wife, Joan Queen of Naples, for not being ſufficiently furniſh'd,	120
Andron the Argian travel'd over the Sands of Lybia without drinking,	359
Animosity betwixt Cæſar and Pompey,	277
Answer of the Indians to the Offers of the Spaniards,	152
Answer ſharp of Philotas to Alexander,	401
Appearances ſuperficial, carry a great Weight in all Things,	174
Appearances outward, Teſtimonies of internal Conſtitution,	26
Appetites rare in Old Age,	32
Appetites of the Body ought not to be augmented by the Mind,	128
Apple of Diſcord,	282
Apples of Hypomenes,	52
Areopagites ordering the Parties to appear again after an hundred Years,	297
Art of Scaffolding unknown,	157
Argyraſpides, Soldiers, puniſh'd, for having betray'd their General,	12
Ariſtippus, living as a Stranger in all Places,	244

I N D E X.

Aristotle reproach'd for being merciful,	Page 337
Arrogancy a wrangling Enemy to Discipline,	350
Art of Physick,	355
Astrology, determining the Motion of the Moon,	291
Atalanta diverted from her Way, lost the Course,	52
Atlantes never dream,	380
Athens compared to Ladies courted by Men,	80
Avarice has no greater Impediment than itself,	270
Austerity of James King of Naples and Sicily,	47
Austerity of Life affected by some Churchmen,	49
Austerity of Mens Decrees renders the Propension of Women more violent,	89
Authority of the Counsels of Kings ought to be preserved, and how,	178

B

B Asfulness an Ornament to young People,	72
Beasts naturally solicitous of their Preservation,	327
Beauty, what is, and how much ought to be esteem'd,	330
Beauties painted, reckon'd among Deformities,	132
Beauties of several Sorts,	332
Beautiful Persons are fit to command,	331
Beds soft despised,	360
Bewitch'd of Karenty,	231
Birth and Burial two very different Actions,	111
Birhs and Burials interdicted at once in the Precincts of the Isle of Delos,	ibid.
Bloody-flux,	308
Boldness and Courage of the Indians,	150
Books without Learning, Walls without Stone or Brick,	20
Books have charming Qualities and great Inconveniencies,	46, 47, &c.
Books written upon Love,	85
Books useful and good, and yet shameful to their Authors,	186
Books that Diomedes did write upon Grammar, Six Thou- sand in Number,	191
Bounty and Benefits prefer'd before Valour,	222
Bounty and Humanity married,	16
Bounty rare, the more beautiful and attractive,	225
Brachman Virgins,	44
Breach of Promise, when lawful,	16
A	Bread

I N D E X.

Bread without Salt,	381
Broth of Eringo's, or Burst-wort, taken to oblige the Ladies,	370
Burghership of Corinth offered to Alexander,	266
Business Mark of Understanding in some Men,	265
Business of most Part of Men is a Farce,	274

C.

C æsar did enjoy corporal Pleasures,	391
Capacity unfit for the Management of publick Affairs,	250
Capacity greater in adverse than in prosperous Fortune,	271
Causey magnificent betwixt Quito and Cusco,	156
Ceremonies troublesom,	42
Change pleasing to Men,	193
Change gives Form to Injustice and Tyranny,	207
Chariots drawn by four Oxen,	139
Chastisement of Officers ought to be performed without Anger,	270
Chastity vow'd and kept on the Wedding-Day,	83
Chastity's Duty,	95
Chastity corrupted by those who are least to be feared,	97
Chastity extreme of some Women,	98
Chastity doth principally lie in the Will,	ibid.
Chewing accounted unbecoming,	111
Children how ought to be provided for by their Fathers,	196
Children tie Men to the Future,	260
Children not much to be coveted, why,	ibid.
Chirurgion, his End,	207
Chirurgions of Greece,	287
Choice of the Manner of dying, left to the Will of the Criminals, by Tyrants,	241
Cholick as long living as Men,	371
Chrysippus drunk in his Legs,	389
Closet of the King of Mexico,	149
Coaches, of what Use in the Service of War,	138
Coaches made Use of by the Hungarians against the Turks	ibid.
Coaches of the Emperors drawn by several Animals,	139
Codpieces worn,	86
	Coin

I N D E X:

Coin unknown in the Indies,	Page 155
Command, difficult and troublesom Employment,	159
Commanding mixt with vexatious Thoughts,	194
Commerce of Books,	46
Communication of some eminent Wit, why looked after,	171
Company accidental upon the Road troublesom,	243
Complacency and Satisfaction in well-doing,	22
Complaints ease Grief,	60
Condemnation of Socrates,	35
Condemnations, to what End,	163
Conduēt in a great Measure left to Discretion,	118
Conduēt of ourselves, principal Charge of every one,	268
Conference of greater Advantage than reading of Books,	165
Confession free and bold,	69
Confession auricular,	70
Confession free and generous eneruates Reproach,	236
Conjunction is a Center to which all Things tend,	85
Conjunction of Stars,	156
Conscience ties up the Tongue, and stops the Mouth,	213
Conscience quiet, begged of God.	280
Considerations at an approaching Death,	54
Consolations, how ought to be practised,	50
Consolations prescribed by Philosophy,	51
Continence enjoined to Women for their particular Share,	80
Continence difficult, or rather impossible to Women,	ibid.
Contradiction of Judgment acceptable in Conference,	166
Conversation with Men,	36
Conversation of beautiful and well-bred Women,	43
Corps of beautiful Women kept three Days in Egypt before they were interred,	115
Corruption is made up upon the particular Contribution of every Man,	192
Covetousness ungrateful,	143
Counsel's Strength consists in Time,	31
Counsels ought not to be judged of by Events,	178
Countenance of Montaigne, when Prisoner, procures him his Liberty,	336
Country abandoned for the Enjoyment of another Air,	232
Courage,	6
Courtiers mix with none but Men of their own Sort,	243
Crates in Love with a She-Goat,	92
	Criminals

I N D E X.

Criminals condemned to execute themselves,	Page 14
Cuckolds lamented, not disesteemed for it,	100
Cuckoldry among the Ancients,	92
Cuckoldry a Character indelible,	100
Cuckoldry frequent, but incommunicable,	101
Cuckoldry of the Emperor Claudius,	102
Curiosity pernicious to Women,	99
Curiosity increased by philosophical Inquisitions,	348
Curtains of the Amphitheatres of Purple and Needlework	146
Custom benumbs our Senses to the Sufferance of Evils,	223
Custom a second Nature,	272
Custom powerful over Men's Life,	356

D.

D ancing practised by Epaminondas,	393
Dangers common fright but low Hearts,	378
Day of the Biffextile,	291
Dead Men are seldom spoken of,	239
Death look'd upon by Socrates as an indifferent Accident,	324
Death valiant of Gryllus,	55
Death chearful of Epaminondas,	56
Death generally and particularly looked upon,	59
Death of Aristodemus,	62
Death of Midas,	ibid.
Death preferred to Banishment,	226
Death quiet and solitary,	234
Death of several Forms and Qualities,	240
Death proceeding from Weakness and Stupidity,	ibid.
Death violent,	ibid.
Death accompanied with Delicacy of Preparations,	241
Death bravely maintained to the last by Seneca,	307
Death contagious is not the worse,	319
Death ought not to be premeditated,	323
Death a Thing to be desired, why,	324
Death is not to be feared according to Nature,	327
Death is more glorious in a Battle than in a Bed,	378
Decrepitude of the World,	148
Decrepitude a solitary Quality,	238
Defence of Shields ranged by one another,	139
Deformity clothing a very beautiful Soul,	331
Deification

I N D E X.

Deification and Adoration of the King of Mexico,	181
Desire impetuous throws the Mind into Disorder,	271
Desires ought to be circumscribed,	274
Devotion easy to counterfeit,	29
Dignities more distinguished by Fortune than Merit	177
Dignities conferred upon ancient Men,	273
Dinner despised among the Ancients,	387
Dinner is more wholesom than Supper,	ibid.
Diogenes patient of Cold,	278
Dion his Origin,	236
Dionysius his Flatterers,	162
Discourses of great Men clouded with Gravity,	180
Discourses with Authority discover their own Weakness,	298
Diseases have their Courses and Limits,	367
Diseases all mortal and dangerous,	371
Diseases medicinal and wholesom,	ibid.
Diseases more grievous in their Issue than in their Effect,	373
Disputes should be punished as verbal Crimes,	168
Disputes of this Time,	ibid.
Diversion a good Receipt for the Diseases of the Mind,	54
Diversion from Revenge,	ibid.
Diversion from Love,	56
Diversion from common Rumours,	58
Diversions military,	51
Diversion made Use of to comfort,	ibid.
Divination of Things to come from Dreams,	380
Divisions in France,	252
Double-dealing Men, what good for,	7
Doubt better than Assurance in Things hard to be proved,	209
Doubts and Difficulties in the Law, from whence proceed,	344
Dreams full of Agitations,	380
Dreams true Interpreters of Inclinations,	ibid.
Dream of Cambyfes,	62
Drinking rare to a Gentleman,	359
Drinking, how far allowed,	387
Drugs and Poisons the worst Sort of Homicides,	298
Duration of Life to threescore and ten Years,	384
Duty don't spring from private Interest and Passion,	1
Eating-

I N D E X.

E.

E ating-Schools at Rome,	389
Edicts of Old Rome for the Service of Love,	85
Eggs discerned one from another,	338
Employment the most pleasant to every one,	203
Encountering of the Civil War against Cinna,	18
Enjoyment betwixt Venus and Mars,	103
Enjoyments are not alike,	115
Enjoyment is not a sufficient Testimony of a Woman's Affection,	116
Epaminondas placed in the first Rank of excellent Men,	16
Epaminondas's Humanity,	17
Epaminondas's great Virtues,	ibid.
Epaminondas's Custom of sacrificing to the Muses when he went to War.	17
Epaminondas's Grandeur,	18
Epitomizing of Books, a foolish Undertaking, and without Honour to the Undertaker,	186
Erasmus's Apophthegm,	26
Esteem vulgar and common, seldom hits right,	216
Estimation not due to little Performances,	288
Events succeeding contrary to Opinions,	31
Events poor Testimony of Men's Worth and Parts,	180
Events, often Effects of good Fortune,	179
Evil the eldest, the most supportable,	208
Evils, how ought to be endured,	367
Evils have their Periods as well as Goods,	372
Examples strange and scholastick,	358
Excuses and Satisfactions scandalous,	284
Execution of Subrius Flavius,	54
Existence of the World divided in five Ages,	156
Expence excessive of Monarch's a Testimony of Pusillanimity,	139
Expences of Kings, how might be profitably laid out,	140
Expences, how ought to be managed,	203
Experience rules the Reason in the Art of Physick,	355
Eyes of dying Persons closed by their nearest Relations,	234
Eyes beautiful, menacing of a dangerous and malignant Nature,	331

Faces,

I N D E X.

F.

F aces, some happy, some unhappy,	Page 332
Faces of Men like or unlike,	348
Facility of People in suffering themselves to be imposed upon,	176
Fainting not dreadful,	379
Fair called good,	331
Falling-Sickness corrected by Cæsar,	362
Fame bought at a great Rate,	288
Family's excellent Estate,	24
Fancy frivolous and extravagant, suitable to human Wit,	165
Fashions of Strangers abominated,	243
Fasting of Epicurus, to what End,	385
Fatua Faunus's Wife,	98
Favour of Princes despised,	280
Fear upon the Waters, from whence proceeds,	138
Fidelity in Love,	125
Felicity human, according to Montaigne's Opinion,	33
Fire made on the outside, and at the Foot of the Houses among the Romans,	357
Fish delicious and easy of Digestion,	385
Flatterers corrupt the Kings,	354
Flight without Affright and Astonishment,	136
Flight of Socrates,	137
Flight necessary, from the Evil that Men cannot endure,	279
Folly not to be cured by Admonition,	183
Folly of Ctesiphon,	369
Foresight of Good and Ill,	137
Fortune favours the Executions of the most simple Men,	178
French Scriblers,	105
Friend how useful and necessary,	237
Friends taking Leave one of another,	233
Friends more faithful than mercenary Men,	143
Friendship contemned for the common Good,	18
Friendship Beast of the Company, but not of the Herd,	38
Friendship rare betwixt Husbands and Wives,	81
Friendship that flatters itself,	166
Friendship civilized and artificial,	ibid.
Friendships purely of our own acquiring ought to be preferred before all others,	226
	Friendship

I N D E X.

Friendship conjugal, grows warm by Absence,	229
Friendship true and false,	268
Friendship sound and regular,	Page 268
Friendship singular,	353
Frugality of the Kings of France,	140
Fruition and Possession principally appertain to the Imagination,	229

G.

G Ames of Hazard, why left off,	278
Garden magnificent of the King of Mexico,	149
Gardens of Damas left untouched by the Hands of the Soldiers,	311
Genital Member produced, lost a Man,	87
Genital Member unruly,	ibid.
Giants in the West Indies,	156
Gifts of Kings, how ought to be bestowed,	142
Gods obnoxious to Passions,	161
Gold hoarded together for Ornament and Shew,	155
Good Sovereign of the Academics and Peripatetics	399
Goods and Evils are never sent absolutely pure to Men,	317
Goods of the Mind seem fruitless to Men, if not produced to the View of others,	204
Government of a Family more troublesome than Hard,	195
Government, what is the best for every Nation,	206
Government Civil a mighty Thing, and hard to be dissolved,	209
Graces of the Body preferred to those of the Mind in Amours,	46
Grandeur of the Soul, in what consists,	395
Gratitude towards dead Men,	257
Greatness easily avoided,	158
Greatness despised,	ibid.
Greatness's Inconveniency,	160
Great Men have no true Part in the Exercises of Honour and Valour,	160
Greedy eating reproved by Diogenes,	389
Grief imprinted by counterfeited Forms,	60
Guessing at Diseases by Urines very uncertain,	376
Guests ought to be chosen,	386
Guests how ought to be chosen according to Varro,	389
Gymnastick of Plato,	88

Harangue

I N D E X,

H.

H Arangue can't make Men valiant on a sudden,	183
Head of a Woman a bad Member,	101
Health, what is,	356
Health more pleasant after Sicknefs,	373
Heat coming from the Fire makes the Head heavy,	357
Hegesias's Disciples pined themselves to Death, why,	53
Hiero's Wife,	98
Humour noble of Chelonis,	382
Husbands careful of the Chastity of their Wives,	88
Husbandry in the Enjoyment of Pleasures,	397

J.

J Anus his double Face,	64
Jealousy exasperates Men against Incontinence,	92
Jealousy and Envy,	ibid.
Jealousy among Beasts,	ibid.
Jealousy among Women,	94
Jealousy of Women dangerous,	95
Ignorance Mother of Vices,	21
Ignorance how cured,	296
Ignorance strong and generous,	ibid.
Ignorance's Vow in Point of Devotion,	306
Ignorance, a soft Pillow to a well contrived Head,	348
Inclinations natural fortified by Education seldom altered and overcome,	26
Inclinations are not always to be followed,	36
Inconstancy pardonable in Women,	120
Inconveniencies ordinary are never light,	197
Inconveniencies of human Nature ought not to be pre-occu- pated,	320
Illusions of Witches,	298
Impudence of those who made Profession of Knowledge, blam'd by Æsop,	303
Indigence has it's Sweetness and Favours,	360
Injury professed less hateful than a treacherous one,	225
Injustice of the extremest Sort according to Plato,	312
Innocents punished without the Judge's Fault,	344
Innovation of great Lustre,	289
Inquiring

I N D E X.

Inquiring after Truth Man's proper Business,	Page 171
Instruction by Contrariety,	164
Instruction of Sciences,	321
Instruction of Nature,	322
Instrument of Deceit,	7
Inventions perpetual and without Aim,	342
Inutility itself not useles in Nature,	2
Itch,	378
Judgment a free and roving Thing,	291
Judgments of other Men,	185
Judgment, Master of Appetites,	349
Judges of China and their Offices,	346
Justice malicious,	2
Justice universal,	9
Justice peculiar and natural,	ibid.
Justice's Time out of Season,	17
Justice full of Error and Contradiction,	344
Justice formed after the Model of Physick,	345

K.

K eeeping and spending receive good or ill Colour, according to the Application of the Will,	204
King of Peru hanged after he had paid his Ransom,	153
King of Mexico taken Prisoner and put to the Rack,	154
King of Mexico hanged,	ibid.
Kisses powerful and dangerous, become contemptible by Salutations,	115
Knowledge of the most curious sort,	148
Knowledge honoured,	170
Knowledge, a Thing of indifferent Quality,	ibid.
Knowledge, a Thing of great Weight,	176
Knowledge of ourselves recommended by Apollo,	263
Knowledge of Causes,	291
Knowledge against natural Inconveniencies,	308
Knowledge of our Age,	342
Knowledge of ourselves of great Importance,	350
Knowledge of Hippias,	221

I N D E X.

L.

L Abour, the End of Alexander's,	Page 398
Lacedæmonian Women little minding to cover their Thighs,	88
Lacedæmonian Women more Virgins when Wives than our Daughters,	ibid.
Ladies learnedly speaking and writing,	40
Ladies never tempted can boast of their Chastity,	90
Lame People best at the Sport of Venus,	300
Language magisterial to Servants reproved,	39
Language of the Poets,	104
Language of Horace,	105
Language of the French,	ibid.
Language and Idioms set off by Wits,	ibid.
Law general of the World,	347
Laws in a greater Number in France than in all the rest of Europe,	338
Laws, how keep up their Credit,	346
Laws ordinarily faulty,	347
Laws of Solon,	206
Law-Suits odious,	281
Lawyers the Pest of a Country,	339
Laziness hateful,	127
Laziness of married Women,	229
Legs of the French Gentlemen smaller than others, why,	301
Liberality in a sovereign Hand not in it's true Lustre,	141
Liberality, a Virtue imprinted in Princes from their Youth,	ibid.
Liberality is of little Commendation in Princes,	142
Liberality immoderate,	143
Liberality, what is,	ibid.
Liberality reproached to Cyrus,	ibid.
Liberty becoming Ladies, what,	97
Liberty, what is,	315
Liberty and Freedom of speaking never suspected,	4
Liberties counterfeited practised without Success,	9
Life hidden from the Sight of other Men,	112
Life divided betwixt Folly and Prudence,	124
Life quiet of Balbus,	159
	Life

I N D E X.

Life of Regulus great and high,	Page 195
Life only communicated by the working of the Belly,	191
Life tender, easily molested,	197
Life ruled by Fortune,	241
Life private, why loved,	244
Life weak and sottish carried on by Rule and Discipline,	360
Life compared to the Harmony of the World,	369
Life ought to be loved and cultivated,	398
Living well, Man's Master-piece,	392
Living by the Example of others doth more Harm than Good,	203
Lives of retired Men painful and difficult in their Duties,	24
Lives the fairest, which,	402
Lodgings fit for Travellers,	240
Loyalty unknown in this Age,	200
Longings violent of sick Persons,	365
Losses that befall Men by the Injury of others are sharp,	314
Love the Entertainment of the Muses,	73
Love is more animated and lovely in Poesy than in it's own Essence,	74
Love founded wholly upon Pleasure,	80
Love's Definition according to Zeno,	109
Love according to Socrates,	ibid.
Love of the Spaniards and Italians timorous and secret,	113
Love should be made by several Degrees, and without Pre- cipitation,	114
Love foolishly conscientious,	125
Love of this Time has little Commerce with Faith and Inte- grity,	126
Love, what is,	127
Love hurts nobody but Fools,	ibid.
Love augmented by Fruition,	94
Love, of what Profit in old Men,	130
Love requires Relation and Correspondency,	131
Love in it's Throne, at what Age,	132
Love's Comportment,	133
Love preferred to Fear,	222
Love furious to a Statue of Venus, and to a dead Body,	115

I N D E X.

Lover having gained his Mistress's Consent refuses to enjoy her,	Page 115
Luther's Opinion in Germany,	343
Lycurgus the general Trustee for his Fellow Citizens,	218
Lyncester killed with Thrusts of Pikes by Alexander's Soldiers,	213

M.

M Aids restoring their Reputations merely by their Constancy,	91
Maids waiting on Ladies ought not to be kept too close,	118
Maids dressed up in Bashfulness and Fear,	ibid.
Maladies long and grievous restore the Body to a better State,	212
Man learned and Man sufficient differ,	21
Man's chiefest Sufficiency,	37
Man that can't endure to see another eating, nor be seen himself,	112
Man of a compound Education,	243
Man a displeasing Object,	262
Man avoids to see a Man born, every one runs to see him die,	111
Man that dares not to adore the Statue of a Saint, if not cover'd with a Veil,	110
Man's Look a feeble Guaranty,	332
Man made by the Gods for their Sport,	109
Marius nice in his drinking,	361
Marriage more necessary, but not less honourable than Virginity,	19
Marriage, of what Use,	75
Marriage betwixt a blind Wife and a deaf Husband,	102
Marriage without espousing is Treachery,	79
Marriages happy wherein there is not much Loyalty,	ibid.
Marriage with a Mistress commonly repented of,	80
Marriages contracted upon the Account of Beauty,	76
Marriages defective,	117
Massacre universal of the Indians,	154
Meals of the Ancients very long,	383
	Measure

I N D E X.

Measure of Life, the most moderate, the most perfect,	384
Measure in Fruition depends upon Man's Application to it,	396
Meat and Dishes in Confusion despised,	380
Meditation, the Business and Beatitude of the Gods,	ibid.
Member of Generation consecrated in several Ways	86
Member unruly given to Men and Women,	87
Members of Generation, why called shameful,	111
Memory of Quartilla,	365
Memory natural helped by one of Paper,	372
Men ingenious in using themselves ill,	112
Men turned into Baboons,	156
Men brought together by Necessity,	205
Men of Merit are of great Solace in Travels,	244
Men of the City of Rome great and valiant,	257
Men inclined to give Way to their Opinions,	294
Mimicks,	108
Mind's strict Fraternity with the Body,	67
Mind's extraordinary Flashes, from whence proceed,	ibid.
Mind ought to be employed with Discretion,	269
Mind can't stop itself,	341
Mind of Persons wandering to all Sorts of living,	353
Miracles counterfeited, advanced and produced by Fortune,	295
Mithridates his Flatterers,	162
Moderation necessary,	5
Moderation required in Marriage, limited by the Queen of Arragon,	81
Moderation required in Pleasures,	395
Moderation betwixt Pain and Pleasure,	264
Modesty a foolish Virtue in an indigent Person,	96
Modesty and Discretion become Maids,	118
Molly, Sort of a Tree,	157
Montaigne's Amours,	45
Montaigne's Wisdom,	123
Montaigne's Library, and it's Situation,	48
Montaigne's Travels,	196
Montaigne's House commended,	217
Montaigne pillaged on all Hands,	313

D d 3

Montaigne

I N D E X.

Montaigne taken Prisoner,	Page 335
Montaigne's mean Way of living in his Youth,	381
Mothers ought not to have the Education of their Children,	382
Mourning is very improper about sick Persons,	235
Murderer of Mahomet the second, delivered into the Hand of the Mother of him he had put to Death	12
Muses made Use of for Sport and Pastime,	49
Muses keep good Correspondency with Venus,	73
Musick martial,	377
Musick banished from Tables by Alcibiades, why,	389
Mutations shake a State,	207

N.

N Ation resolute rather to lose the Succession of Men than to beget one,	111
Nature has no Need of Fortune,	392
Nature obstinate sensible of no Emotion,	60
Negligence towards the natural Offices excused with new ones,	123
Neutrality in Civil Wars neither honourable nor honest	5
No Man Prophet in his own Country,	24
Nobility what Virtue,	76
Nobles of Calicut, and their Privilege,	ibid.
Noise despised by Men of Learning in their Schools,	359
Noise help to Study,	ibid.
Nudity's wonderful Power,	88

O.

O ath of the Judges of Egypt,	10
Oaths of the ancient Philosophers,	108
Obedience to bad Magistrates,	254
Obligation burthensom to wise Men,	222
Obscurity vicious,	256
Obstinacy a Testimony of Folly,	184
Offers of the Spaniards to the discovered Indians,	152
Office of Fortitude,	395
Offices important are not the hardest,	286
	Old

I N D E X.

Old Age unfit for the writing of Books,	Page 329
Old Men should be present at the Exercises of young People,
why,	64
Old Men's Love feeble and imperfect,	121
Old Men begging of God a vigorous Health ridiculous,	368
Omnipotency,	161
Opinions human taken upon Authority and Trust,	304
Opinions the truest are not always the most commodious,	300
Opinions of several Philosophers,	391
Oracles speaking in a double and obscure Sense,	342
Orchard of ripe Apples inclosed within the Roman Camp
left untouched to the Possessor,	310
Orthography and Pointing despised,	216

P.

P Agés brought up in good Families as in a School of Nobles,	118
Pain vehement even to Perfection in the Soul of the Saints by
Repentance,	129
Paladius,	161
Panthea, Cyrus's Captive, her Beauty,	279
Paris commended,	225
Particular Concerns are of no Comparison with the general
ones,	267
Passengers made use of for Judges,	339
Pastime, and passing away the Time, what is,	396
Patience providing against Inconveniencies,	280
Patience of Socrates,	394
Peloponnesian War,	51
Persuasion, natural Progress,	293
Philosophy proper for Women, what Kind,	41
Philosophy's Dignity spoiled by the weak Spirits,	176
Philosophy, Head of a Government,	251
Philosophy's childish Opinion concerning Pleasures,	399
Physicians the Pest of a Country,	339
Physician according to Plato,	355
Physicians compared to Painters and Town-Criers,	356
Physick pleasant and grateful,	367
Physiognomies favourable,	333
Plague cruel in Gascony,	318

D d 4

Plague

I N D E X.

Plague raging in Montaigne's House,	Page 318
Plays and publick Spectacles to flatter the People,	144
Pleasure excuses Sin,	28
Pleasure excessively lascivious hinders Conception,	75
Pleasures natural allowed, if moderate,	128
Pleasure of a retired Life,	198
Pleasure has no Taste without Communication,	244
Pleasure of travelling, Testimony of Uneasiness and Irresolu- tion,	ibid.
Pleasure painful at the Bottom,	265
Pleasures provided by Nature for Men,	309
Pleasures pure, of the Imagination the greatest,	ibid.
Pleasures corporal, of what Power,	391
Pleasures human enjoyed by the greatest Men,	ibid.
Pleasure of the Soul to be preferred to that of the Body,	399
Pleasure married with Necessity,	ibid.
Pleurisy,	308
Plutarch universal and full,	107
Poesy allowed to Women,	41
Poesy armed with Love,	73
Poets pour out with Fury whatever comes into their Mouth,	255
Policy of Women mysterious,	83
Pompey blamed by Tacitus,	188
Pontneuf at Paris,	140
Possession of ourselves,	221
Poverty affected by Crates,	202
Poverty of some Philosophers,	272
Poverty maintained at the publick Expence,	325
Power desires Limit,	36
Praise always pleasing,	215
Praises given after Death, to what Purpose,	60
Precedence, either of walking or sitting,	236
Preparation for Death more painful than Death itself.	323
Priest that cured all sorts of Diseases by Words and Gestures,	294
Printing in China,	148
Prize of Eloquence refused by Tiberius, why,	162
Profession military, the most pleasant,	377
Profit Publick preferr'd to Justice,	15
Promises ought to be strictly observ'd,	218
	Proofs

I N D E X.

Proofs grounded upon Experience,	299
Prose of former Times,	255
Prosperities are Instructions to Men,	193
Proximity lessens not Defects,	220
Prudence, what is, according to Plato,	350
Punishment of wicked Men shews the Goodness of the Judge,	336
Punishment of Inconveniencies,	337

Q.

Q ualities sickly of our Being,	2
Qualities necessary to examine the Soul of another,	353
Quarrels cause of great Ruins,	282

R.

R ansom excessive of the King of Peru,	153
Rapsodies of common Places, of what use,	328
Reading of History good and profitable in all Times,	175
Recommendation of Socrates after his Death,	327
Reflection necessary in Actions,	274
Reformations external,	27
Refusal of a Present injurious,	221
Relation and Connexion among wise Men,	229
Relation and Conformity of the Body to the Soul,	330
Remedies more troublesome than the Disease,	364
Repentance follows the Sin,	23
Repentance, what it is,	ibid.
Repentance sick and faulty,	27
Repentance of Stoicks,	29
Repentance is not concern'd in things that are not in our Power,	30
Repentance true, what is,	ibid.
Repentance accidental which Old Age brings along with it,	32
Repentance, from whence produced,	30
Repetition troublesome	212
Reproaches redoundable upon those that throw them,	172
Reproach of a conferr'd Benefit odious,	222
Revenge, sweet Passion, and of great Impression,	56
Revenge

I N D E X.

Revenge taken on a Woman in lying with her,	Page 117
Reward of virtuous Actions grounded upon the Approbation of others,	22
Riches of the Indies of little Revenue to the Prince,	155
Riding the great Horse the only true Exercise of the Sons of Princes,	161
Rome the common and universal City,	258
Roman Soldiers suffocated with their own Hands after the Battle of Cannæ,	319
Royalty stifles and consumes all the other true and essential Qualities,	162
Ruins glorious of the City of Rome,	259

S.

S AGE permitted to love,	248
Sarmates,	118
Satisfaction very remarkable of a Thief,	28
Sciences treat of Things too finely,	106
Science of good Housewifry, the most useful and honourable Knowledge for the Mother of a Family,	228
Science sophisticated,	320
Sciences the most terrestrial and low,	463
Scipio, great Sleeper,	376
Scratching, sweet Gratification of Nature,	378
Scriblers impertinent and foolish,	192
Scriblers ought to be punished as well as Vagabonds and idle Persons,	ibid.
Scribling, sign of a disorder'd and licentious Age,	ibid.
Scythian Women made use of their Slaves, having first put out their Eyes,	95
Sea-sick, why People are apt to vomit at Sea,	136
Secrets of Princes troublesome Burthens,	7
Security of a Place, how known,	211
Seneca's Diet for a whole Year,	359
Senses proper Judges,	174
Sentences more criminal than the Crimes themselves,	345
Sepulture of the Nearites,	319
Serene, sharp, and dangerous about the declining of the Sun,	362
Serenity of the Air promises Health,	331
Servants hang'd for betraying their Master,	12
	Shades

I N D E X.

Shades of the Persians,	Page 227
Sharps and Sweets of Marriage kept secret by the Wise,	101
Shells gathered by Scipio and Lælius childishly trifling on the Sea-shore.	393
Sick Persons, how ought to behave themselves in the Time of their Sicknefs,	238
Siege of Mexico,	153
Silence very profitable to those that govern,	178
Similitude perfect not to be found,	338
Simplicity, Cousin-German to Folly,	303
Sins impetuous and sudden,	29
Sins of Complexion and Profession,	ibid.
Slander of known and avow'd Imperfections,	235
Slave thrown from the Tarpeian Rock for his Treason,	12
Sleep long not wholesom,	376, 377
Sleep disturb'd to be the better relish'd,	397
Sneezing, why they say God bless you when one sneezes,	136
Socrates's Knowledge,	25
Socrates's Opinion concerning Violence, or Wrong done,	174
Socrates's Pleading,	324
Socrates a deform'd Fellow,	330
Socrates the Master of Masters,	351
Socrates, his Oath,	108
Soldier's Hands perish'd with Cold carrying a Burthen of Wood,	189
Soldier ought to be pliable to all Variety and Inequality of Life,	361
Solicitude about Riches smells of Avarice,	204
Solitude, what is,	42
Solitude Local,	ibid.
Solitude preferr'd to troublesome and foolish Company,	244
Sorcerers Dreams incorporated with Effects,	299
Sovereign Authority mov'd for a moderate Fortune,	159
Souls, by which Men ought to be judg'd,	26
Souls in Old Age subject to more troublesome Maladies than Youth,	34
Souls of several Stories,	38
Souls stupid, in what consists their Happiness,	277
Soul order'd and regulated by Socrates,	306
Soul never struck with the Pain of the Stone, as in other Diseases,	374
	Soul

I N D E X.

Soul ought to partitipate of the Pleasures of the Body,	391
Souls elevated by the Ardour of Devotion and Religion,	463
Spanish way of Travelling,	228
Speaking discomposes sick and wounded People,	366
Speaking ought to take it's Tone from the Ears of those to whom 'tis directed,	ibid.
Speech read very absurd, and mighty disadvantageous	214
Spirits froward and pensive,	69
Sport of Hand,	185
State of Rome, and it's diverse Forms,	210
States threatned with Alteration and Ruin,	211
Stone ordinary in Old Men, especially Men of Quality,	369
Stone, in what favourable,	374
Stone,	375
Stoves decry'd,	357
Strangers in the French Armies in the Time of the Civil Wars,	310
Students of Montagu College in Paris,	253
Stupidity of the Vulgar, and it's Effects,	324
Suffering, first Lesson taught by the Mexicans,	368
Summer more incommodious than Winter,	388
Sun appearing newly created,	156
Superfluity superfluous,	242
Superiority and Inferiority bound to a natural Contest,	160
Symptoms and Accidents of the Stone,	371

T.

T Acitus's History,	187
Tacitus's Character,	ibid.
Telling of Ladies Liberalities,	91
Temperance ought to be below'd for itself,	34
Temptations of the Flesh powerful and sharp,	308
Testimony of a good Conscience,	22
Thalestris came to Alexander to lye with him,	119
Theology of former Time,	255
Theramenes's Shoe,	302
Thief grown rich,	28
	Tibe-

I N D E X.

Tiberius, his trouble of Conscience about the Religion of his Time,	188
Time the Physician of our Passions,	57
Time ought to be managed,	401
Timoleon deputed to cleanse Sicily of Tyrants,	15
Tissick,	308
Traitor severely punished by the Duke of Russia for having betray'd into his Hand the King of Poland,	11
Traitors look'd upon as execrable Fellows, even by those that have employed them,	12
Travels, when useful and instructive,	232
Treachery rejected by Tiberius,	1
Treachery preferr'd to Honesty,	10
Treachery, wherein it ought only to be excused,	11
Treachery punished by the Romans.	12
Treachery reveng'd upon those that were employ'd about it,	ibid.
Trouble in abundance,	242
Trouble,	375
Truth is one, and simple in her Ways,	8

V.

V Alour preferr'd to Genealogical Nobility,	76
Valour Military recommended by the Larvs of Plato,	134
Valour of Socrates,	394
Variety pleasing,	242
Venus, why made a Goddess,	45
Venus, what is,	109
Verity circumscrib'd and limited,	354
Vertue rejoices good Nature,	22
Vertue is pleasant and gay,	68
Vertue Royal, wherein consists,	142
Vertue of Cato vigorous,	250
Vertue assign'd to the Affairs of the World,	ibid.
Vertue Scholastick unfit for the Management of Publick Affairs,	251
Vertue true and sincere out of Employment in the World's Service in a sick Time,	250
Vertue, what is, according to Memnon,	343
Vessel

I N D E X.

Vessel rich, purposely broken by King Cotys, why,	Page 278
Ugliness of several Sorts,	330
Vices necessary in all Governments,	2
Vice leaves Repentance in the Soul,	21
Vices condemn'd by Reason and Nature,	22
Vices not subject to Contradiction,	23
Vices of Kings authoris'd by their Subjects Imitation,	162
Victories obtained against the Indians,	152
Vigilancy and Activity ought to be recommended to Youth,	376
Violence of Desires hinders the Execution of Undertakings,	269
Virgins could not be put to Death at Rome,	13
Voice, of diverse Tones and Uses,	366
Voice strain'd before Meals wholefom,	383
Umbrella's of Italy,	227
Understanding short every way,	147
Unlikeness affected by Nature,	338
Unfaying authoritatively extracted, infamous,	284
Usurpation of Sovereign Authority taken upon Men over Women, from whence proceeds,	125
Utility publick,	15
Utility private, not to be preferr'd before Faith given,	16
Utilities proper to Men lost, to accommodate themselves to the common Opinion,	203

W.

W ALK required in a Place of Retirement,	48
War monstrous,	309
Water of the River Choaspes, Beverage of the Persian Kings,	226
Weakness and Insufficiency in a Man break a Marriage,	121
Women Weavers more lustful than other Women,	301
Whimsies in use among the mean sort of Men,	166
Whores kept in Temples for the Use of those that came to their Devotion,	85
Wicked Men pick'd out and put together in a City built for that Purpose by King Philip,	205
Wife complaining of her Husband's too frequent Addresses to her,	81
Will and Desire are Laws to themselves,	8
Will

I N D E X.

Will running on with too warm an Appetite ought to be restrain'd,	Page 277
Winds breaking out of Men three several Ways,	136
Wine the best, which,	198
Wine hurtful to sick People,	364
Wine palled in Esteem in Portugal,	358
Wine dashed with Water of Cranaus's Invention,	387
Wine Theological and Sorbonical,	392
Wise Men necessary to help us out of the World,	233
Wise Men should be intelligent in the Use of Pleasure,	393
Wisdom commits itself to the Conduct of Chance,	179
Wisdom brought again from Heaven by Socrates,	306
Witch mark,	399
Witches,	297
Witness among the Romans,	296
Woman preferr'd before another,	45
Woman's refusal increases Man's Love,	90
Woman blind cur'd by Vespasian,	189
Women's Mourning, what,	50
Women are more learned than Men in Love's Business,	84
Women of the Kingdom of Pegu cover'd below the Waist with a Cloth slit before,	88
Women prostituted by the Mediation of their Husbands, and for their Advantage,	98
Women prostituting themselves for an Elephant,	99
Women having Liberty by the Laws to provide for the Necessities of Life at the Expence of their Chastity,	ibid.
Women render'd more easy to yield to the Pursuants by the Severity of Obligation enjoin'd them by their Husbands,	102
Women's Embraces despis'd,	111
Women fine in Italy,	117
Women kept very close in Italy,	ibid.
Women losing the Title of fair acquire that of good,	133
World in a perpetual Motion,	19
World discover'd,	149
World is a School of Inquisition,	171
World unwilling to be cured,	207
Words moderating the Temerity of Propositions,	296
Writings of Antiochus corrected by himself in his more mature Age,	215
Writings of Heraclitus,	341
	Xenophon,

I N D E X.

X.

Xenophon reliev'd and sav'd in the Delian Battle, 394
Xerxes environ'd with all human Delights makes a silly
Proposal, 390

Y.

Year cut ten Days shorter, 290

Z.

Zeal falsly nam'd, 6
Zeno, his Oath, 108
Zeno never had to do with a Woman but once in his Life,
111

F I N I S.

