

UNIVERSITÄTS-
BIBLIOTHEK
PADERBORN

Hogarth moralized

Hogarth, William

London, 1831

Zitate

urn:nbn:de:hbz:466:1-62527

Standort: P 06
Signatur: KCWH 1009
Akz.-Nr.:
Id.-Nr.: W2668563

“ His matchless works of fame secure,
Shall live our Country's pride and boast,
As long as Nature shall endure,
And only in her wreck be lost !”

David Garrick.

“ All who love the dramatic representations of actual life—all who have hearts to be gladdened by humour—all who are pleased with judicious and well-directed satire—all who are charmed with the ludicrous looks of popular folly—and all who can be moved with the pathos of human suffering—are admirers of Hogarth.”

Allan Cunningham.

78/21474