

Die Schrift

Degering, Hermann

Berlin, 1929

2 a Weihinschrift für die Juno Lucina in Norba. 4. Jahrh. v. Chr. (Nach: Diehl, Inscriptiones latinae. 1912, Taf. 3.c.) b Senatus consultum de Bacchanalibus aus dem Jahre 186 v. Chr. (Nach: Diehl, ...

urn:nbn:de:hbz:466:1-68942

F. P. V. T. H. E. I. V. S. M. F.
I. V. N. O. N. E. I. L. O. V. C. I. N. A.
D. E. D. I. T. M. E. P. E. T. O. D.
D. I. O. V. O. S. C. A. S. T. V. D.

Fragment of a Latin inscription, likely a legal or official document, containing several lines of text in a highly eroded and partially illegible script. The text appears to be a formal decree or record, possibly related to a public office or a specific administrative matter. The characters are small and closely spaced, with significant wear and tear, making many words difficult to discern. The fragment is roughly rectangular and shows signs of being part of a larger stone or metal surface.