The title page is framed by an elaborate woodcut border. At the top, a central figure with a ram's head and horns is flanked by two winged cherubs. Below this, a large, stylized letter 'M' is formed by decorative scrolls. On the left side of the 'M', a bearded man in a hat stands on a pedestal. On the right side, a woman in classical dress stands on a pedestal. The central part of the 'M' contains a shield with a crown above it and a banner below it. The banner has the words 'INCLITA' on the left and 'PROLE' on the right. The shield itself contains several circular symbols. At the bottom of the page, two lion heads are carved into the base of the decorative structure.
